PLAYER DEVELOPMENT SCHOOLS

> PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The MetroStars Player Development School (PDS) is a supporting component of the MetroStars Player Development System and offers the most focused, sustained and comprehensive soccer-training curriculum in the tri-state area. PDS focuses on developing a player's individual soccer skills and identifies players for selection to the MetroStars Academy Teams. MetroStars Player Development School is open to ALL players and is not restrictive based on a player's skill level. The school runs a series of 8-week year-round courses.

PDS Location

The MetroStars plans to offer its PDS program at select location in Northern, Central and South Jersey, Westchester, Manhattan and LI, NY, and Fairfield County, CT. Through this extensive network of Development Schools, soccer players will receive expert training from MetroStars coaching staff.

Becoming a Host Location

Are you looking to raise the profile of your organization and offer high-level training to all of your players? If you meet any one of the following criteria, you could become host to the MetroStars PDS.

- Have Own Fields Available One Night per Week
- Have Indoor Facilities
- Have Lighted Fields
- Are Located in a Strong Soccer Community

As a host location you receive an array of benefits, including discounted training, camp scholarships, game tickets, MetroStars merchandise and online curriculums.

Curriculum

The PDS School curriculum is designed for players ages 7 – 14 years who are at the very important age for individual technical and tactical development. Players are grouped based on age and skill level and follow a progressive curriculum designed by and the technical staff of the MetroStars 1st team.

Staff

MetroStars Player Development School staff is among the most experienced and qualified coaches in youth soccer. Each coach is handpicked and holds a UEFA/USSF A or B coaching License. Additionally, all coaches are required to go through 40 hours of intensive training and orientation programs.
